An enquiry was held adjourned from Race 3 at Les Landes on 22 April 2019, to consider the conduct of Karl Kukk, the trainer of ORDER OF SERVICE, and his stable groom at the start. The trainer was interviewed and shown a recording of the incident. The stable groom was found guilty of misconduct in that he had struck ORDER OF SERVICE multiple times with a lead rein whilst walking him round prior to the start and then had encouraged ORDER OF SERVICE to start by striking him with his hand on the near hind quarter at the start of the race. The trainer was fined £120.
